Mr. H. G. PATRICK, in Louisville, Ky.,

has recently put up the Patent Platform Scale, with every article usually found in the trade, and will supply them at a low rate for cash or to mercantile caravans as articles of the kind are to be had in the city. Every article sold from our establishment is made to order, and will prove otherwise it will be taken back and the money refunded.

We would recommend this establishment particularly to those who have no time to travel outside the city, and wished to have family receipts of physician's prescriptions carefully and accurately filled, we intend to make full use of the services of the Patent Platform Scale, and hope to do so to the entire satisfaction of our customers. And in doing this, we only acknowledge it a duty, giving you and the business men a good account of your scale.

THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION Takes place on Tuesday, the 2nd day of November. The polls open at 6 o'clock
A. M., and close at 7 o'clock P. M.

Upon what are Whigs Founded?

The Journal announces that a gin is going to be made in five counties in Pennsylvania;

The Philadelphia Argus exposts the business:

PLAIN QUESTIONS FOR WHIGS.—It is now a well known fact that a secret meeting was recently held in this city by Truman Smith, Fitz

Henry Warren, Moses Grinnell, Simon Draper,

Theodore Stevens and ex-Governor Johnston,

for the purpose of devising some means to repair the failing fortunes of the Whig party in the State of Pennsylvania, Ohio and New York.

The whigs were there discussed, and the plan agreed upon was to raise sufficient funds to send agents into all quarters of these States to operate upon the free soil and abolition vote,

by representing to the leaders of these factions that Gen. Scott, if elected, will use all the power of the general government to put into effect

the great principles of the fugitive slave law;

second, the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia; and thirdly, the prohibition of slave in the territories, belonging to the United States government. These are the points to be presented by the agent of this wing committee, and the funds for this purpose are to come from the whig merchants of Philadelphia, New York, and other cities in the North East. Also we are informed that a circular has been secretly issued from the committee, setting forth the absolute necessity there is for this fund, and calling upon the faithful to be liberal or the election will go by default. How this draft on the purses of the white merchants of this city will be met, remains to be seen, in the mean time, we shall have a few plain questions with reference to this abolition move on the part of the committee from Washington, who are leading in this attack on a portion of the Union and all its guaranteed rights.

The editor don't speak of a doubtful matter, but one well known. He then proceeds, through a column of earnest remonstrance against aiding to get up the abolition excitement in that State,

The encroachment in the Journal is the fruit of this consultation, and of the means fixed up on.

The Chickasaw Ambassador is now on a mission from Kentucky to the free soil portion of Ohio, begging the abolitionists to vote for Scott, and prevent the extension of slavery.

A Kentucky whig aiding and abetting the efforts of these abolition agitators in getting up a storm of fanaticism again. Those in this State who agree with C. M. Clay, might employ themselves in this business consistently, but here is a whig aid at it; whilst whig editors and whig orators here are pledging themselves that Scott is perfectly safe and reliable upon the slavery question. The men who would vote for Scott were informed that a circular had been secretly

issued from the committee, setting forth the

absolute necessity there is for this fund, and

calling upon the faithful to be liberal or the election will go by default.

Port Wayne Sentinel.

—Henry Radcliffe, one of the Native

American Electors in Pennsylvania, has declined, and says he will vote for Gen. Scott.

Of course! Who else should a Native American vote for?

The editor of the Cleveland Forest City, one of the most radicalized Whig prints in the country, still has his hand in the result of the election in Ohio, Indiana and Pennsylvania, throws out the following nice bit of advice to his Whig friends:

"Our advice to Whigs, then, is, to make no more bits, but withdraw those you have made however strong the chances."

Now, don't care in! It looks melancholy on the eve of the last throw!—Cin. Eng.

THE DEMOCRAT.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1852.

A WORD TO ADVERTISERS.—All the advertisements appearing in the Daily Democrat are transferred to our Evening Edition, and receive a gratuitous insertion. Thus each patron of the moral paper has the advantage of an evening circulation to a distinct class of readers free of charge.

RALLY! RALLY!

Dr. GARR, elector of this district, will speak at Leavenworth, Jefferson county, on Friday, and at Eaton on Saturday.

RALLY, DEMOCRATS.

Capt. E. A. Graves, L. A. Whitley, Alfred Dobbins (the mechanic) and Philip Tempert will address the people of Louisville at Waltron's Goffice-house, corner of Clay and Jefferson streets, on THIS EVENING, (30th inst.) at early gas lighting. Come one, come all; let there be a grand rally for Pierce, King, Saunders and democracy.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.

Professor Cross will address his fellow-citizens at the Court-House on SATURDAY EVENING, 30th inst. It is hoped that many of our whig fellow-citizens will be present on this occasion, as the Professor will doubtless deliver an address that will richly repay them for their attendance.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.

E. F. NEUTALL, Esq., of New Castle, will address the democrats of Louisville, at the SHELBY STREET MARKET HOUSE, on MONDAY NIGHT, at 7 o'clock.

For some time past our paper has been almost exclusively devoted to the canvass; but now, that the election will soon be over, we expect to show that our "industry, watchfulness and enterprise" will not permit us to leave unpublishe any items of news of public interest; nor will the "Democrat" lack in variety in all that goes to make an agreeable and entertaining newspaper.

We have on hand several contributions which shall soon appear—soon, indeed, as the smoke of the canvass clears away, and the public mind settles down to its accustomed channels.

Well's Minstrels.

This incomparable troupe of Ethiopian Minstrels give their last entertainment in our city, to-night. We urge those who have not had the pleasure of hearing them, to be present to-night, as their engagements in other places will prevent their remaining longer in our city. The programme for this evening is an excellent one, embracing a variety of songs, dances, burlesques, extravaganzas, &c. Those who are troubled with the "blue devils" would do well to attend. Birch is an infallible remedy.

Military and Civic Ball.
Laborers are in great demand all over the country. Five hundred are wanted immediately to work on the Shelbyville Railroad. An agent of the New Orleans and Jackson Railroad has been in Cincinnati for several days, endeavoring to hire four or five hundred laborers to work on the above named road during the winter. Good wages are offered, but he has not succeeded in inducing laborers to go South. The industrial classes may indeed congratulate themselves on these comparatively happy days of labor.

Extensive Sale of Jewelry.
We call the attention of readers to the lengthy advertisement of Messrs. Root & Brown to be found in our columns to day. This firm, in view of a partial change of business location from their present stand to Main street, offer a very large stock of jewelry at cost. Every variety of goods in their line is embraced in the stock.

Speaking at the Court-House.
Remember DR. CROSS makes a speech at the Courthouse to night. He died of consumption.

Mr. J. was well known to most of our citizens as the publisher of several city directories.

We are told that at least five thousand bees will be killed and packed at Lafayette, Ind., this fall, and it is thought that Lafayette will be made a permanent point for bee packing hereafter. We know of none better fitted for that business.

At the Indiana State Fair, recently held at Indianapolis, amounted to a sufficient sum to pay all expenses, and to refund to the State the two thousand dollars appropriated to the board last winter.

The receipts of the Indiana State Fair, recently held at Indianapolis, amounted to a sufficient sum to pay all expenses, and to refund to the State the two thousand dollars appropriated to the board last winter.

The Sinclair Family, a group of four children, said to possess extraordinary vocal powers, will give one or two concerts in our city next week.

A gentleman of our acquaintance went to Indianapolis on Thursday—look a look around the city, and returned home the same evening—afeat not often performed.

Those who have collected funds to pay for the Democratic Barbecue, are requested to meet the Committee of Arrangements at C. C. Green's this evening, at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Gustavus Chamagne, the accomplished clerk of the steamer Friendship, will please accept our thanks for files of New Orleans and St. Louis papers.

The steamer Forrest City arrived last night from St. Louis. She reports three and a half feet water on the bars below.

A buggy was upset on Strader's Wharf yesterday morning. The driver escaped with a muddy coat.

The weather yesterday was rainy and disagreeable, and the streets very sloppy.

Jno. M. Stokes' Furniture Warehouses.

One of the first establishments of its kind in the West is the Cabinet and Furniture manufacturer and sales-rooms of Mr. J. M. Stokes, on Main street, opposite the Bank of Kentucky.—Every description of furniture, but especially of the finer and more costly kinds, may be found here in abundance. All the most recent patterns, bearing the most exquisite finish, together with all of the old established styles of furniture are embraced in the stock of this house. Mr. S. has furnished more parts probably than any similar house in the West—in fact his reputation for the finer descriptions of furniture is widely known, that he receives many orders from distant points, for parts sent complete.

To form some idea of the extent of the business of this establishment, the following may suffice: The ware-rooms occupy a double front, and extend to an unusual depth back, and include the first, third and intermediate stories—all completely filled and crowded with wares of his own manufacture, ready for the trade.—There are constantly engaged about seventy hands in the different branches of the business, and with a view of extending still further the manufacturing department, a large four story building has just been erected on the corner of Guthrie and Third streets, and is now about ready for use.

It affords us great pleasure to notice the onward march of Louisville in its improvements, but especially to note the increase of her manufacturing interests.

The Irish Minstrels.

We are glad to learn that several of our influential citizens have prevailed on Mr. McEvoy to defer his departure from our city for one night longer, in order to afford them an opportunity of giving a complimentary benefit to his talented children, on to-morrow evening. This is as it should be, and we trust that our citizens will turn out on this occasion to reward Irish talent. Between the sections of the Panorama, a selection of new vocal and instrumental pieces, will be introduced for the first time, on the grand Edison Piano, Harp, Violin, and Concertina—the latter a new London instrument.—Several comic songs, duets, &c., will be introduced. There will be an evening performance of the same programs as for the schools.

WINNIE House, Cincinnati.—We invite the attention of our readers, and travelers particularly, to the card of Mr. K. Winnie, proprietor of the Winnie House, in Cincinnati, to be found in another column. This new and commodious hotel has just been opened in the Queen City, at the corner of Broadway and Third streets.—The location is central, being convenient to the steamboat landing, and all the railway depots, yet sufficiently removed from the noise and bustle of every day life to render it a pleasant retreat to the man of business, as well as strangers visiting the city. The proprietor is a gentleman proverbial for his affability, and any of our citizens who contemplate visiting Cincinnati will always find the Winnie House a first rate hotel.

A PIZZLE! The Day Against Them!
We learn from a gentleman who left Shelbyville on Friday, was indeed a pizzle. The big gun for the occasion were Col. Preston and Col. Williams, and the "bone squad," of that village. There is a "general spatzy," in the whig ranks, which together with the unpropitious weather caused the failure.

Brunes, fife, gunpowder, gas and glory cannot save them. Whiggy is doomed in Kentucky.

MILITARY AND CIVIC BALL.

The second company of the Louisville Legion, the "Washington Blues," have announced their second Annual Ball, for Wednesday, November 21st, 1852. The large number of gentlemen named as managers will, of itself, insure that the entertainment will be worthy of the Company and the occasion.

The most ample arrangements are being made, and we ask nothing in venturing the assertion that it will be one of the best balls of the season.

Extensive Sale of Jewelry.

We call the attention of readers to the lengthy advertisement of Messrs. Root & Brown to be found in our columns to day. This firm, in view of a partial change of business location from their present stand to Main street, offer a very large stock of jewelry at cost. For late St. Louis papers the clerk of the Forrest City will please accept our thanks.

A buggy was upset on Strader's Wharf yesterday morning. The driver escaped with a muddy coat.

The weather yesterday was rainy and disagreeable, and the streets very sloppy.

The Cincinnati Atlas, (Whig) of the 28th, has an article headed "Don't bet—Don't sell." The same paper says: "Let every Scottie constitute himself a committee to beat up his fellow-soldiers in his own township and ward," and "punch cut the lazy whigs, and you will be astonished at the result." No doubt of it.

CONVICTION OF A FATHER AND SON.—Joshua and William Gilmer, father and son, have been found guilty at Harrisonburg, Va., of robbing the meat-house of Abraham Byrd. The punishment of Joshua was fixed at three years confinement in the penitentiary, and that of William to three years and six months.

HANDBILLS.—Handbills have been recently posted about the city of Boston, cautioning the people against the habit of swearing, and threatening prosecution in all cases of violation of the law. If parties were to be presented in his city for swearing what a busy time there would be.

GREAT DISTRESS AT MADEIRA.—The failure of the vintage, resulting from the recent blight upon the grape, has produced the greatest distress among the inhabitants of Madeira, and threatens with absolute starvation large masses of the laboring classes. The civil Governor of the island has issued a circular acknowledging the impotence of the Portuguese government to meet the emergency with anything like adequate relief, and appealing to the christian sympathies of foreign nations for aid to avert the impending calamity.

A LARGE LUMP OF CALIFORNIA GOLD.—A solid lump of gold, in its rough state, weighing twenty-six and a half pounds, avodupuis weight, has been deposited at the importing house of Messrs. Richard Patrick & Co., in New York, by a Texan minor, who dug the same from a mine seventy feet deep, in California.

VERDICT AGAINST RAILROADS.—James Legman has received $9,900 damages from the Western (N. Y.) Railroad, for an injury (by which he was made a cripple for life) sustained by him two years ago. A man named Douglas has also recovered $1,813 from the Buffalo and Rochester road, for upsetting his wagon.

THE EAST RAILROAD COMPANY.—The East Railroad Company have recently forbid entirely the sale of intoxicating drinks in any of the refreshment houses along the road, or in any of the grounds of the company, and absolutely refuse employment to any persons who make use of such drinks.

THE BOSTON SHIPPING LIST.—The number of persons, male and female, now employed in Massachusetts, in the manufacture of boots and shoes is 75,000, and the value of the goods $25,000 annually.

AN EXCHANGE PAPER IN NOTTINGHAM.—An exchange paper in noticing the next little speech delivered by Gen. Pierce at Coalbrookdale, the other day, says, from this it is evident General Pierce is but seldom "caught with his breeches down."

THE CITY COUNCILS OF SAVANNAH, GA.—have subscribed $50,000 to the Savannah and Atlanta railroad, which is to be surveyed and located immediately.

IT HAS BEEN DISCOVERED.—It has just been discovered that a little girl, fourteen, near Galena, Illinois, murdered her parents, who died last spring, as was then supposed, by cholera.

THE CITY DEBT OF RICHMOND, VA.—amounts to $1,200,000.

AN EXHAUSTED RECEIVER.—A busted up pawn-broker.

AN ATROUS MURDER.—We are furnished by Mr. Piggman, of the Gen. Pike, with the particulars attending the perpetration of one of the most dastardly acts of barbarity and cold blooded murder, that has ever been recorded in the annals of crime. About ten days ago, Mr. John F. Williams, who lived on the Merrimac river, some 28 miles above its mouth, built a small flat-bottom and with a hired hand, started down the river. His intention was to go to Arkansas on a trapping expedition, and he was at the close of the season to allow the man a certain share of the profits in addition to his wages.—The boat reached Evan's Landing, nearly opposite Grand Tower, and remained there a day or two. While at this point, Williams's comrade becoming dissatisfied with the situation, abandoned the boat and obtained employment as a wood chopper for Mr. Evans.

Williams, who evinced, by his movements, that he was a perfect desperado. On Tuesday last, he induced the unfortunate young man to walk with him along the bank of the river, and when he got to a place somewhat remote from observation, he upbraided him for deserting him. The poor fellow told him that he would not, under any circumstances, travel with him, as he knew that he (Williams) had but a short time before murdered a man, in the southern part of this State, and that if he was annoyed any more by him, he would blow the whole affair.

Williams, becoming greatly incensed and drawing a large bowie-knife, inflicted five stabs upon one of which would have proved fatal. The unfortunate wretch fell to the ground, but before he expired he was literally cut to pieces by the inhuman monster.

Williams hearing the noise of approaching footsteps, and knowing he had done the job complete, fled into the woods, and when the Pike was at the wood-yard, had not been arrested. The citizens had turned out in great force, and were scouring the country in all directions. As the murderer was committed within the limits of Illinois, Gov. French will, of course, offer liberal reward for the apprehension of Williams. He is a man of five feet eight inches in height, and wore heavy black whiskers. His apparel was composed of coarse materials, and his head was covered with a Rough and Ready black hat.—Pittsburg Union.

GOVERNOR WRIGHT.—We copy the following just and appropriate compliment to this worthy and popular Governor from the New York Journal of Commerce—a paper of high character and standing:

"Governor Wright's immense majority is just reward for his enlarged anti-slavery views. It will be remembered that three of years ago, when the whole North seemed to have gone crazy after Free Soilism, Wilmett Provisoism, and the kindred humbugs, Governor Wright sent a special invitation to Governor Crittenden, of Kentucky, to come and see him, and that the invitation was accepted. A whig became guest with a democrat—a Southerner with a Northerner. A great concourse assembled to share in the mutual congratulations; addresses were made and returned in the spirit which knows no North, no South; and in short, a signal rebuke was practically administered, of those little, narrow, contemptible sectional feelings which so extensively prevailed, and which even now are rife in some circles. For this eminent service to the nation, and for his great course on national topics, Governor Wright deserves the thanks of every true American. What his own State thinks of him, is seen in the result above recorded."

A NERO WOMAN.—A negro woman was relating her experience to a gaping congregation of color, and among other things, she said she had been in Heaven. One of the ladies of color asked her, "Sister, did you see any black folks in Heaven?" "No get out, spouse I go in de kitchen when I war de war!"

A VENDETTA.—A widow of patois name has this infinite specific against deceptions and connivencies on his invaluable compound: "If it is aint, then it ain't aint."

OUR DANIEL.—He says he thinks the old proverb "it is more pleasant to give than to receive," is true, as much as he has never received anything but "lickings," and he is sure they were not very pleasant.
